First Western Properties is pleased to present the Ritz Furniture Gallery Building located at 20423 Highway 99 presents a rare opportunity for an owner/user to secure a large-format, highly visible commercial building along one of Snohomish County's primary retail corridors. The 25,476 SF two-story structure combines expansive showroom space with functional warehouse and dock-high loading, creating a versatile platform for retail, distribution, service, or specialty users.

Situated on ±53,579 SF with 255 feet of Highway 99 frontage and exposure to over 34,000 vehicles per day, the property offers both operational efficiency and brand visibility. Flexible Commercial General (CG) zoning further enhances usability, allowing a broad range of commercial applications.

For businesses seeking long-term occupancy control, brand presence, and equity growth in a high-traffic corridor, this asset provides scale and flexibility rarely available in today's market.

DEMOGRAPHICS

Lynnwood, Washington, stands as a pivotal economic engine within Snohomish County. While it ranks as the fourth largest city by population, its strategic significance is primarily defined by its role as the region's preeminent commercial center. The economic landscape of Lynnwood is characterized by a vibrant and expansive business community. With a robust ecosystem supporting over 2,500 distinct businesses, the city generates a palpable energy. This commercial dynamism is underscored by a dramatic increase in its daytime population, which swells to over 150,000 individuals, comprising a diverse influx of dedicated workers, active consumers, and ambitious students. This substantial daily influx fuels the local economy and underscores Lynnwood's magnetic appeal as a hub for commerce and activity.
