Rockwall County Demographic Overview

Fate, Texas is located in the east corner of Rockwall County and is just 34 miles east of Downtown Dallas. Fate has two major airports (DFW International Airport & Dallas Love Field) less than a hour away. The city of Fate has grown nearly 35 percent in the past decade. Residents have easy access to four area malls, two outlet malls, Uptown Dallas nightlife, close proximity to area colleges, and are also close to recreational facilities at Lake Ray Hubbard, Lavon Lake and Lake Tawakoni. Fate is just 10 miles from the Rockwall Harbor District. The Harbor District opened in 2005 and provides musical entertainment, festivals and weddings with more than 24 places to dine, shop and have fun. Located on Lake Ray Hubbard, one of the largest lakes in North Texas, visitors come from all over to see the gorgeous sunsets. Over 80,000 visitors come every year to shop, stay in the upscale Hilton Hotel, relax at the spas and dine at some of the finest restaurants in North Texas. Rockwall County is located in the northeastern outlying sub-market of DFW, a regular target among retail investors in Dallas-Fort Worth. Helping drive population growth is excellent job growth of 19 percent from 2015 to 2020. Rockwall County was the third fastest-growing county in the country during the last decade and its population has nearly doubled since 2000. Not far behind was Collin County, which ranked #13, growing more than 60 percent. The county was also ranked the #1 Richest County in Texas and one of the Top Five Best Places to Live in the Nation. Strong population growth coupled with tax incentives for development make Rockwall County an excellent choice for commercial investors

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
