Description

Currently utilised as an art gallery, the property benefits from excellent natural lighting and has been significantly 'opened up' internally to provide accommodation that would suit a number of occupiers and uses, subject to planning.

The building has retained much of the original character externally, while delivering a high quality and contemporary environment internally.

Location

The property is situated in St Andrews Crescent which forms part of Cardiff's traditional professional office core.

St Andrews Crescent benefits from excellent transport connections, with easy access to Cardiff's main road and rail network, with Cardiff Queen Street Railway Station located just 500 metres from the property. There are numerous city centre leisure and retail amenities located in close proximity.
