6 South Parade Melton Mowbray Leicestershire LE13 0PU

6 South Parade is a prominent town centre retail property standing in a "100% Prime" position in the centre of Melton Mowbray, having huge passing footfall in the marketplace. Tuesday still sees an open street market which pulls an extra 4k footfall a month.

Melton Mowbray is a traditional English market town in Leicestershire, known for its deep food heritage, historical charm, and strong community feel.

The building was largely remodelled c.1800, and internally opened up and refurbished c.1980 and 2000. It is three storeys high and is constructed of brick under slate roofs which were replaced 20 years ago. It has a modern shop front and rear access via a shared side passage. It is listed Grade II.
