PROPERTY OVERVIEW

54 Toll Bridge Road • Eastport, ME

Property Overview

The property consists of a collection of residential-style structures thoughtfully spread across rolling terrain overlooking Cobscook Bay. The main residence serves as the centerpiece, complemented by additional cottages and outbuildings that provide flexibility for guest accommodations, studio space, or extended family use.

Spanning over 20± acres of private shoreline. This unique retreat comprises 10+ vacation rental units, historic farm infrastructure, and significant expansion potential. The property combines scenic natural beauty with a fully operational hospitality business, providing income and long-term growth prospects. The property is zoned for shoreland commercial, which allows expansion for additional lodging or cabins.

The land features a mix of open fields and wooded areas, creating a balanced landscape that enhances both usability and privacy. The extensive waterfront offers scenic views, potential for water access, and a strong connection to the surrounding coastal environment.

The property offers a tranquil Downeast setting known for its natural beauty, maritime heritage, and vibrant arts community. The area provides access to boating, fishing, hiking, and other outdoor recreational activities.

The property is situated just minutes from downtown Eastport, offering convenient access to local shops, restaurants, and marinas while maintaining a high level of privacy and seclusion.
