EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

NRG Realty Group has been selected to exclusively market this exceptional industrial investment opportunity in Midland, Texas. The property is fully leased to ASL Group US Co., a heavy-duty repair and fleet maintenance company expanding into the U.S. market with strong roots in the industry. Backed by its affiliation with Aftermarket Solutions, a well-established Canadian firm, ASL brings over two decades of hands-on experience and a proven reputation for quality, reliability, and performance.

Secured under a 7-year Triple Net lease, this investment offers a 9.50% cap rate and a first-year NOI of $240,000, providing immediate, stable cash flow from a growing international operator.

The 13,500 SF facility, built in 2019, sits on 5.32 fenced and secured acres and features a 7,125 SF shop with a 10-ton crane, 2,250 SF of office space, 1,875 SF wash-bay, and 2,250 SF of second-floor living quarters. With its modern design, versatile layout, and quality tenancy, this property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a turnkey industrial asset positioned for long-term success.

BROKER PROFILE

Dakota hails from South Texas and graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a BBA in Finance. After graduating, he forewent a job in the finance sector and, instead, pursued work as a hand in the oilfield, gaining experience in drilling before making his way into the completions world. Dakota’s educational background eventually caught the eye of a previous employer, leading to a career as a completions salesman. Specializing in Frac, Dakota excelled in sales, securing over $125,000,000 in contracts with E&P Companies over four years.

Outside of work, Dakota is a gym aficionado, an AI enthusiast, and regularly consumes enough caffeine to disqualify the entire U.S. Olympic Track Team on any given day. In his rare free time, he enjoys reading classical fiction, with “The Count of Monte Cristo” by Alexandre Dumas being his favorite.

Amy joined the NRG Realty Group in 2024. She has been actively involved in real estate since 2004, completing assignments in industrial, office, retail, medical, and multi-family commercial real estate. Amy grew up around the industrial oil and gas sector in Midland, visiting drilling sites with her father, who owned Brasher Mud, Inc., and D&A Equipment. Later, she worked with him in asbestos abatement. Amy emphasizes uncompromising integrity, effective communication, confidentiality, and is deeply involved in the due diligence process. Her priority is her clients’ best interests, and she enjoys helping them achieve their business goals.

Amy’s career started as a writer for the Midland Reporter-Telegram’s Oil & Gas Report. She has a B.A. in Communications from the University of Texas of the Permian Basin and attended Thomas M. Cooley Law School. She later worked for a corporate litigation firm in Dallas and assisted with gas station leases in Boca Raton, Florida. Amy is a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and is working toward her CCIM accreditation. She enjoys spending time with her daughter, Ellie, as well as fishing, golf, running, and photography.

Information About Brokerage Services

11/2/2015

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- # A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- # A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- # Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- # Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- # Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- # Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- # Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- # May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- # Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- # The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- # Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
