FOOT TRAFFIC | HOURLY & DAILY PATTERNS

HOURLY VISIT DISTRIBUTION

Traffic builds steadily from 8am, peaks sharply at 12pm (noon) and again at 4pm, then tapers after 6pm. The dual peaks - midday lunch and late-afternoon - are a textbook F&B; demand profile, supporting both a lunch-rush QSR and a late-afternoon snack/coffee concept. The 10am–6pm window accounts for the vast majority of visits, with minimal overnight or early-morning activity.

DAILY VISIT PATTERN

Saturday dominates weekly traffic at ~6,500+ visits - nearly 50% above the weekday average. Sunday is negligible, suggesting a strong opportunity for a tenant to capture an underserved Sunday dining crowd. Monday and Friday are the strongest weekdays.
