

A photograph of the ReadySpaces building in Denver - Park Hill. The building is a modern, two-story structure with a light blue facade and large glass windows. The 'ReadySpaces' logo is prominently displayed in large, light blue letters above the entrance. The address '4777 Leyden' is visible on the glass door. The entrance features a set of concrete steps leading up to a glass door. There are some bushes and a small tree in front of the building.
