EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This fully leased cold storage facility at 88 Cadbury Way in Holley, NY offers investors stable in-place income with a clear value-add component. The 72,000-square-foot building, constructed in 2004, features 33'-37' clear heights, five dock doors, and three drive-in doors—well-suited for food distribution and temperature-controlled logistics users. While the existing tenant fully occupies the building, they currently utilize approximately 5.28 acres of the 22-acre site, creating a compelling opportunity to capitalize on the remaining excess land through additional leasing, outdoor storage, or future development.

Strategically located near Route 31 with convenient access to NYS Route 390 and the greater Rochester market, the property offers strong regional connectivity alongside meaningful upside through expansion or site densification.

ABOUT HOLLEY, NY

Holley, NY is a strategically positioned village in Orleans County, approximately 20 miles northwest of Rochester, placing it within the greater Rochester industrial and labor market. Located along NY-31 with convenient access to regional highway networks, Holley offers strong connectivity for distribution and logistics users.

The area is appealing for commercial and industrial real estate due to its affordable land and building costs, established industrial presence, and proximity to Western New York's key transportation corridors—making it ideal for manufacturing, cold storage, warehousing, and outdoor storage users seeking value outside primary metro pricing.
