Dollar General, founded in 1939, is an American chain of variety stores with a nationwide presence in 48 states. Headquartered in Goodlettsville, Tennessee, the company operates and franchises over 23,000 stores in the U.S. Dollar General's corporate expansion strategy has contributed to its success as one of the largest retailers in the country.

Dollar General's high sales volume, large store count, and low-priced household items make it a desirable tenant in the net lease market. In addition to offering high-quality private brands, the company sells products from trusted manufacturers such as Clorox, Energizer, Procter & Gamble, Hanes, Coca-Cola, Mars, Unilever, Nestle, Kimberly-Clark, Kellogg's, General Mills, and PepsiCo.

In the 2025 fiscal year, Dollar General's annual revenue reached $47.72B, reflecting a 5.2% year-over-year revenue expansion from the previous fiscal cycle.

Core Elements Catalyzing Growth

- Traffic Consolidation: Full-year same-store customer metrics expanded by 3.0%, primarily accelerated by a 2.6% traffic spike in physical stores during the final quarter of the fiscal year.
- Private Label Shift: Macroeconomic pressures incentivized core household shoppers to aggressively trade down to internal value brands, culminating in the launch of expanded food lines like their Simmer & Stir collection.
- Operating Profit Recovery: Annual operating profit experienced a distinct rebound, scaling 28.6% upward to $2.2 billion as post-pandemic supply chain overhead normalized.
