
DESCRIPTION

A standout retail opportunity with double frontage within the iconic Leadenhall Market, offering excellent visibility and presence in one of the City of London's most historic and well known destinations. This is a rare chance for a brand to secure a well presented space in a location renowned for its architectural character, prestige and loyal weekday customer base of office workers, leisure guests and tourists.

Leadenhall Market blends heritage charm with a high-spending professional catchment and a steady flow of visitors drawn to its unique character. Perfect for a concept looking to deliver something distinctive and high-quality to a prime London Estate.

LOCATION

This unit sits on Lime Street Passage with direct access to the Square Mile's 678,000 office workers, the majority of which fall within the 22–39 age bracket.

The market also sits adjacent to major new developments including the new One Leadenhall (430,000 sq ft), 85 Gracechurch Street (235,000 sq ft) and One Bishopsgate Plaza (562,000 sq ft), driving substantial additional footfall. This is further complemented by tourists and London residents alike.
