The Arrival

The double-height façade has an immense presence at road level, creating a welcoming and memorable first impression. Constructed of glass and perforated stainless steel panels, it is designed as a dynamic, rippling ribbon that wraps the building.

One Stephen Street's distinctive façade

The Reception

Once inside, the double-height, staffed reception makes a statement with extraordinary volume and light. The design is bold and inspiring, featuring a dramatic black steel feature wall, seamless terrazzo flooring, and bespoke large-scale light fittings in polished brass.

Two-wheeled commuters will appreciate the high-spec end-of-journey facilities, including 197 cycle racks, 236 lockers and 20 showers.

A Place of Expanding Possibilities

Into Fitzrovia

Stephen Street is part of the Fitzrovia neighbourhood, a sophisticated urban village, where commercial, residential, academic and creative coexist in harmony. The area's historic tree-lined streets, notably Rathbone Place and Charlotte Street, are home to niche retailers, cool coffee shops, smart bars, chic brasseries, and boutique hotels. Oxford Street, one of London's busiest and most vibrant shopping streets, is a short distance away. Directly below One Stephen Street is the exciting retail parade of Tottenham Court Walk, one of Derwent London's shopping, leisure and dining destinations.

And because Fitzrovia lies within London's Knowledge Quarter, many global megabrands have made the area their base in the capital. It's undeniably a strategic central London position, just moments from Bloomsbury, Covent Garden, Soho, the West End, and Mayfair.

And Beyond

Looking further afield, the rest of London is effortlessly accessible. One Stephen Street is less than a minutes' walk from Tottenham Court Road's Central and Elizabeth line services. The latter offers high-speed, high-frequency connections across London and the south of England, including a 28-minute service to Heathrow Airport.

More destination options are available at nearby Goodge Street and Warren Street tube stations. The national and international rail terminals of Euston, King's Cross St Pancras and Waterloo are only a quick cab ride away.
