Cedar Park, Texas

Cedar Park has established itself as a primary business destination within the Austin–Round Rock MSA, offering companies a strategic Central Texas location without the cost burden of a core urban market. The 183A toll corridor provides direct connectivity to downtown Austin, the Domain, and the region’s principal employment centers, supported by US 183 and Parmer Lane for east-west access.

An active economic development program, a development-friendly permitting environment, and the absence of a state income tax continue to attract corporate investment across the technology, aerospace, and advanced manufacturing sectors. For professional service firms and small-to-midsize businesses, Cedar Park offers ownership in an established, appreciating submarket with full access to the Greater Austin economy.
