LOCATION

Ilkley is an attractive and affluent spa town in West Yorkshire, situated approximately 12 miles north of Bradford and 17 miles northwest of Leeds. The town benefits from excellent rail connections to Leeds and Bradford, with onward links to London King's Cross, and lies within easy reach of Leeds Bradford International Airport. Recently recognised in the Sunday Times Best Places to Live guide as the best place to live in the north, Ilkley offers a vibrant retail centre, strong local economy and affluent catchment. The resident population is c15,000 but the town attracts many more tourists and day trippers due to its attractive town centre and proximity to the Yorkshire Dales National Park.

The subject property is situated between Brook Street and Leeds Road, two of the main shopping streets in the town.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises an attractive courtyard development of traditional stone-built buildings providing a mix of six retail units, a two-storey restaurant and a first-floor unit currently occupied by a local chess club. The accommodation is arranged around a central parking area and features timber and glazed shopfronts beneath pitched slate roofs, creating a characterful setting that complements Ilkley's established townscape. The courtyard provides a pleasant trading environment with shared access and parking, offering excellent prominence and footfall from nearby retail and leisure occupiers. The property presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-let freehold investment in one of Yorkshire's most sought-after market towns.
