Description

A high quality modern unit, constructed c.2008 with profile clad elevations and provision for 2-storey internal office accommodation. The property is in excellent condition having only been lightly used since new for archive storage. Internally the premises are effectively an 'as new' shell with no offices having been installed due to use. The property has the benefit of 7 designated parking spaces plus loading space with easy access & turning for HGV delivery in the yard area

Location

Situated on the popular Brunel Drive industrial estate close to the junction of the A1, A46 & A17 and than ½ a mile from Northgate train station providing quick access to London. The town centre is less than a mile away offering a wide range of amenities. Newark is an attractive & thriving market town well served with excellent road and rail links. The surrounding larger centres of Nottingham and Lincoln are both within 45 minutes drive.
