PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Park Brokerage, in cooperation with California Broker of Record ParaSell Inc. is proud to bring to market Gold Country Campground Resort a premier, year-round outdoor hospitality destination nestled in the breathtaking, heavily wooded Sierra Nevada foothills of Pine Grove, California. Designed as a true "Paradise in the Pines," this 45.7-acre resort seamlessly blends rustic mountain charm with resort-quality amenities. It offers a pristine, quiet getaway perfectly suited for experiential travel and family entertainment.

Strategically positioned along the widely traveled Highway 88 corridor, the resort is exceptionally accessible for large Class A motorhomes and fifth-wheel trailers. It is an easy drive from the San Joaquin Valley and major Northern California urban hubs like Sacramento, Modesto, and Stockton, alongside neighboring cities like Merced and Lodi. While summer temperatures in these valley cities regularly spike to over 100 degrees daily, Gold Country Campground Resort rests comfortably at an elevation of 3,500 feet. This prime elevation offers a much-needed retreat, with temperatures typically 15 to 20 degrees cooler, ensuring a highly comfortable camping experience for guests. Furthermore, sitting just 45 minutes from the resort community of Lake Tahoe, the property serves as a natural and convenient stopover spot for vacationers heading to the high Sierras. The property also benefits from a concentrated cluster of entertainment venues, with three full-service casinos located within an hour's drive: Jackson Rancheria Casino, Harrah's Northern California, and Acorn Ridge Casino. Together, these destinations provide year-round dining, live entertainment, and gaming options that drive consistent adult visitation. Combined with world-class winter snow sports at Kirkwood Ski Resort—located just forty-five minutes up the alpine corridor—the surrounding area delivers diverse, year-round demand drivers that protect against seasonal lulls.

The resort caters to a wide demographic of outdoor enthusiasts with 130 total units and a diverse array of lodging options including spacious, big-rig friendly sites featuring full hookups, 30/50 amp service, and premium upgrades like Deluxe Sites with private fire pits. For those seeking a more traditional stay, the property boasts charming stick-built rental cabins, comfortable motel rooms, a spacious multi-room vacation lodge, and dedicated tent camping sites. Guests enjoy exclusive access to a large, sparkling swimming pool and an interactive water splash pad that serves as a major draw for families during the summer months. The on-site experience includes a well-maintained mini-golf course, an arcade, billiards, horseshoes, basketball, a playground, beautifully wooded nature trails, and two large clubhouses. The park provides complimentary premium Wi-Fi, basic cable at RV sites, immaculate restroom and shower facilities, and a spacious, dedicated dog park for four-legged guests.

Serviced by public water and septic, the property includes a double-wide manufactured home for on-site management and three park models. The resort offers massive value-add potential and immediate upside for a future operator. Immediate revenue growth can be captured by raising currently below-market rates and activating one unused park model. Additionally, the offering includes over 27 acres of currently unutilized land, providing a substantial footprint to explore potential park expansion or alternative uses—such as installing a solar to offset electrical costs and further drive NOI. Ownership also has county confirmation that converting existing tent sites into RV sites requires no Conditional Use Permit (CUP) or planning entitlements. Two prime conversion sites are already outlined in the offering, and the majority of existing tent sites can easily accommodate any size RV. Furthermore, the Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) only applies to the lodges and cabins—not the RV sites—resulting in a natural enhancement to the bottom line. Finally, the park has showcased incredible resilience over the last three years despite a PG&E easement violation that temporarily blocked guest access and suppressed revenue. With that project now fully completed, a new owner is perfectly positioned to see a substantial revenue bounce-back in Year 1.

TENT TO RV CONVERSION OPPORTUNITY

Ownership has received written confirmation from the Amador County Planning Department stating that the conversion of existing tent campsites to RV sites at Gold Country Campground does not require a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) or any additional planning entitlements. Please note that standard operational and construction permits from the Environmental Health and Building Departments may still apply.

The site plan depicted was designed by a professional engineer who visited the site and identified the two most qualified sites for conversion.

Note, all tent sites should be large enough to accommodate RV sites large enough for any class of RV.

LOCATION INFORMATION

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Located in historic Amador County, Gold Country Campground Resort occupies a highly strategic and scenic position in the heart of the Sierra Nevada foothills. Serving as an easy-to-reach getaway for millions of Northern California and Bay Area residents, the property's tranquil, pine-studded environment creates an ideal home base for exploring the rich cultural tapestry and natural splendor of the legendary California Mother Lode.

The surrounding region serves as a powerful magnet for outdoor enthusiasts and long-term RV travelers seeking diverse itineraries. Just four miles from the property lies Tabeaud Lake, a pristine, motor-free reservoir offering peaceful kayaking, canoeing, trout fishing, and heavily shaded scenic hiking trails. A short drive transports visitors to Indian Grinding Rock State Historic Park, a preserved site featuring the largest collection of bedrock mortars in North America alongside family-friendly nature trails. Additionally, the spectacular Black Chasm Cavern, a designated National Natural Landmark known for its rare, gravity-defying crystal formations, provides a massive draw for eco-tourists and families staying in the area. RVers drawn to the nostalgic allure of the Gold Rush find themselves perfectly situated to embark on captivating, scenic day trips to picturesque neighboring towns such as Jackson, Sutter Creek, Amador City, and Volcano. These beautifully preserved historic communities offer charming Main Streets lined with antique shops, boutique artisan galleries, and highly acclaimed local dining that caters to affluent travelers. Visitors can also explore monumental regional landmarks like the Roaring Camp Mining Company and the historic Kennedy Mine, one of the deepest and richest gold producers in the Mother Lode, offering a tangible, immersive connection to California's pioneer past.

Furthermore, Amador County has earned an international reputation as a premier viticulture region. The breathtaking Shenandoah Valley, located just a short scenic drive away, boasts over forty boutique, family-owned wineries renowned for bold, ancient-vine Zinfandels. Many of these sprawling vineyard estates feature ample parking that easily accommodates larger RVs and tow vehicles, directly catering to the resort's core demographic of experiential travelers. Ultimately, this premier location seamlessly blends the tranquility of the Sierra foothills with unsurpassed access to California's most treasured historical, agricultural, and recreational landscapes. For an RV resort investor, the geographic positioning of Pine Grove offers an unparalleled combination of convenient urban proximity and boundless outdoor adventure, ensuring consistent, robust demand from the lucrative outdoor hospitality market.
