Location Highlights

BALDWIN PARK

91706 AREA

Baldwin Park, located in the San Gabriel Valley of Los Angeles County, is a predominantly residential and working-class community that reflects a blend of suburban living and dense urban development. The 91706 ZIP code area covers most of the city and is characterized by tree-lined residential streets, mid-century single-family homes, apartment complexes, and a strong presence of small businesses and local commercial corridors. Major thoroughfares such as Francisquito Avenue, Puente Avenue, and Baldwin Park Boulevard serve as commercial anchors, where strip malls, eateries, and service-oriented businesses support day-to-day needs. The area is also known for its accessibility, with nearby freeway connections like the I-10 and I-605 making it a practical hub for commuters traveling across Los Angeles County.

The community in 91706 is diverse both culturally and economically, with a significant Latino population shaping much of the local identity, cuisine, and small business landscape. Public spaces such as Morgan Park provide recreational outlets, while schools and civic programs play a central role in neighborhood life. Baldwin Park has also worked to revitalize parts of its commercial core over the years, aiming to improve walkability and attract new investment while maintaining its established residential character. Overall, the 91706 area blends affordability relative to nearby Los Angeles suburbs with a grounded, community-oriented atmosphere that continues to evolve within the broader San Gabriel Valley region.
