About the Property

Prime ±2.20-Acre Commercial Opportunity in Growing Helotes Corridor

Positioned in the rapidly growing Helotes submarket, 13770 Antonio Drive offers a prime ±2.20-acre commercial opportunity with exceptional flexibility for a range of uses. The expansive site provides ample room for development, outdoor storage, or owner-user occupancy, all within a scenic Hill Country setting. With convenient access to major thoroughfares and proximity to northwest San Antonio's strong residential growth, the property benefits from increasing demand and visibility. Ideal for investors or users seeking land in a high-growth corridor, this site presents a rare opportunity to secure acreage in a desirable and supply-constrained market.
