Description

The subjects comprise of a dilapidated and redundant traditional stone-built U-plan agricultural farm steadings, on a picturesque rural site extending to approximately 0.99 Ha (2.45 acres). The steading is predominantly of rubble stonework with squared quoins. The original U-plan steading has been altered over the years to provide function to its agricultural use. A former cattle stall enclosure situated to the east of the steading, being one of these alterations.

The property is approached by means of a shared private access road. A number of large and exclusive residential properties lie in close proximity to the subjects with delightful walking routes which can be immediately accessed from the property.

Planning

There is current planning consent for the redevelopment and extension of a redundant Category B listed steading building to form a residential development to form 6 residential units, 1 residential unit on the footprint of the former animal pen and the erection of 3 detached holiday let units, with associated parking, infrastructure and landscaping. The design scheme has been developed by Bobby Halliday Architects who have significant experience of quality steading conversions, having delivered numerous award-winning steading developments across Central Scotland. Full information is available on the Loch Lomond and Trossach Planning Portal, reference 2022/O357/DET. Full details are also available from the selling agents.

Drainage/ SEPA

Offers

Offers must be submitted in Scottish legal terms to the Selling Agents. A closing date for offers may be fixed and prospective purchasers are advised to register their interest with the Selling Agents following inspection. Whilst every effort will be made to ensure that parties having registered their interest will be notified of a closing date this cannot be guaranteed. It should be noted that the vendor reserves the right to accept offers prior to a closing date being set. In addition, the seller reserves the right to not accept the highest or indeed any offer.

Anti-Money Laundering Compliance

DM Hall is regulated by HMRC in its compliance with the UK Money Laundering under the 5th Directive of the Money Laundering Regulations, effective from 10th January 2020, the selling agents are required to undertake due diligence on property purchasers. In terms of these Regulations, we are obliged to decline any offer received unless we are in possession of satisfactory evidence of the identity of the buyer. We will request information, consistent with the Regulations, to help us identify the successful bidder before acceptance. If sufficient information is not received, we must decline it. We will accept such information from a third party only when supplied to us by Solicitor or Chartered Accountant who will be asked to supply the compliance documents and confirm that they have identified the party consistent with the Money Laundering Regulations. We will not rely upon documents supplied by any other party. Any photo ID must be endorsed with the words, "I certify that this is a true likeness" and signed accordingly. Where satisfactory evidence is not obtained, the buyers offer must be declined and, where suspicion arises, the Money Laundering Reporting Officer advised. Unless required by any other enactment, or as otherwise agreed, documents supplied will only be used for the purposes of compliance with the Money Laundering Regulations.
