LANDMARK INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

Executive Summary

1087-1089 Queen Street West, Toronto known as “The Great Hall” (or the “Property”), represents a rare opportunity to acquire a fully leased heritage investment property at a prominent Downtown Toronto intersection in the heart of West Queen West. Originally constructed for Toronto’s first YMCA, the building was designed by the architectural firm Gordon & Helliwell, which is well known for its churches and institutional buildings across Southern Ontario. Today, the Property is occupied by the iconic Great Hall event venues, Gloria at the Great Hall, and various office users.

The Great Hall combines historic architectural character with modern building functionality. An extensive restoration carefully reinstated many of the building’s original elements, with attention given to details including the brick and Port Credit sandstone façade, 19th-century radiators, and original window mullions. The result is a well-preserved heritage property that maintains its historic character while supporting a range of contemporary commercial uses.

A defining feature of the building is its broad wooden staircase, which is adorned with hand-carved, gilded ornaments. Other notable design elements include the original coffered hallway ceiling, crystal chandeliers, and restored heritage finishes throughout. These features are complemented by modern improvements, including upgraded washrooms serving each venue.

The site is improved with a four-storey plus lower-level heritage mixed-use commercial building. The building is configured with restaurant space on the main floor, event venue space on the lower level, main floor, second floor and third floor, and office space on the fourth floor.

The building contains a total gross floor area of 32,598 square feet and a total net rentable area of 29,115 square feet, with measurements prepared in accordance with the 2010 BOMA Standard for Retail Buildings.

The Property offers an established urban retail and event environment suitable for a range of uses, with potential for further value creation through future assemblage or moderate redevelopment of the existing site. The Property benefits from 50 feet of frontage on Queen Street West and ceiling heights of over 30 feet.

The Vendor currently leases Units 400, 402 and 408 at above-market rents, with the existing lease expiring on December 31, 2027. Upon closing, the Vendor will enter into a new three-year lease at $30.00 per square foot net, covering both the currently occupied units and the remaining vacant office units, being Units 405, 407, 409 and 410. C&W’s cash flow projection reflects this revised lease structure and terms.
