Market Overview

Henrico, VA

Innsbrook Office Space

Located within the heart of Innsbrook, Richmond's premier office park, 4480 Cox Road offers businesses a highly connected, amenity-rich environment designed to support growth, retention, and productivity. Innsbrook is a well-established corporate district in Henrico County's West End, home to a diverse mix of headquarters, professional services firms, and growing companies.

Unmatched Regional Access

The property benefits from immediate access to I-64, I-95, I-295, and Route 288, providing efficient connectivity throughout the Richmond region and beyond. Its central West End location allows for convenient commutes from both Henrico and surrounding counties.

Amenity-Rich Business Environment

Innsbrook functions as a true live-work-play environment, offering nearby restaurants, hotels, retail, and services that support employees and visiting clients alike. The area continues to evolve with new mixed-use and residential developments, enhancing walkability and long-term tenant appeal.

Proven Corporate Hub

The district is home to major employers and regional headquarters across finance, insurance, technology, and professional services, reinforcing Innsbrook's reputation as one of Richmond's most stable and desirable office markets.

Business-Friendly West End Location

Recognized for strong demographics, a skilled workforce, and competitive operating costs, the Innsbrook area continues to attract companies seeking a suburban office environment with urban-level amenities and infrastructure.
