Prime Visibility from Leesburg Pike

Dedicated Dual Drive Thru Lanes

Property Overview

Tysons Commerce Center sits in one of the region’s most dynamic and affluent submarkets, Tysons Corner. The available endcap space offers rare dual drive-thru lanes and a sheltered walk-up deposit drop box.

Situated just off the interchange of Chain Bridge Road (Rt. 123) and Leesburg Pike, with the latter offering prime visibility through 71,000 VPD, this established building is an iconic structure along the path of many commuters. These commuters represent a portion of the powerful daytime population of 249,000, with many others arriving to work on the D.C. Metro Silver line at one of the four stops in the area.

Tysons Commerce Center has its own attached four-level parking garage with over 600 spaces, making lunchtime trips out of the office a breeze. Less than a mile from both Tysons Corner Center and Tysons Galleria, Tysons Commerce Center is minutes from the 8th largest mall in the United States, the largest within the Baltimore–Washington area.

Market Insights & Overview

Tysons Corner Submarket

Tysons Commerce Center sits within the Tysons Corner submarket, a fast-paced, dense, mixed-use environment that is both a transit center for D.C. commuters and destination itself. The area is home 275,516 residents, living in 102,070 households. Most residents are established in their careers with an average age of 39.7. 84.3% of residents work in white collar positions and take home an average income of $243,326 per year.¹

Tysons Corner is home to five Fortune 500 headquarters, and is one of the D.C. metro region's most compelling locales for office tenants. Despite post-pandemic office market challenges, Tysons is rapidly shifting into a dense mixed-use submarket embodying the live-work-play environment. This transformation is popular with employees, attracting new-to-market tenants to the area.²

Tysons Corner is shifting to embody the popular live-work-play market.

In a May 2025 presentation to investors, the real estate investment trust Macerich and owner of Tysons Corner Center unveiled a $100 million-dollar strategic re-development plan for the west-end of the mall. Seeking to "reimagine the shopper experience," the owners also intend to include $45 million-dollars in mall improvements.³

Fairfax County

In 2023 the GDP of Fairfax County was $167,456,388,000 which is an increase of 5.2% from 2022. Fairfax County accounts for 23.3% of Virginia's total GDP, making it a substantial part of the Washington-Arlington-Alexandria DC-VA-MD-WV Metropolitan Statistical Area. This MSA is one of the strongest within the United States, with its total GDP over 714 billion, ranking 6th nationally in 2023.⁴
