35 ACRE PRIME DEVELOPMENT FOR HIGH SPEC SECURE CAMPUS STYLE BUILDINGS

Soteria Park, Malvern is destined to become one of the UK's most innovative new build campus developments providing much needed facilities for high-tech manufacturing, R&D, cyber, industrial and logistics uses in the central defence and technology belt of the West Midlands.

The Park will provide a 35 acre campus built to a high level of design and flexibility to meet the evolving demands of specialist occupiers.

The Park can be designed for occupation by a sole user or for multiple occupation. There will be strong emphasis on providing a secure environment.

Development will be subject to planning and will respect the setting of the Malvern Hills National Landscape.

SOTERIAPARK

STRATEGICALLY LOCATED IN THE HEART OF THE REGION'S DEFENCE, CYBER AND TECHNOLOGY BELT AND WITHIN CLOSE PROXIMITY TO MALVERN SCIENCE PARK

Malvern is a historic Spa town at the foot of the scenic Malvern Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. It is the principal settlement in the Malvern Hills district, serving as its administrative centre and a key employment hub in the Central Technology Belt of Worcestershire, Gloucestershire and Herefordshire. Worcestershire hosts the UK's second-largest concentration of cyber security firms, representing a strong pipeline for local spin-outs, defence suppliers and high-tech SMEs.

Companies located in the immediate area include Qinetiq, Malvern Panalytical, Morgan Motor Company, Collins Aerospace and Metrea. Businesses in the wider region include Moog, Babcock and BAe.

INDICATIVE MASTERPLAN

SOTERIAPARK
Malvern

Soteria Park is designed as a campus to respond to the desire of both employers and employees to provide more than a place of work, but a working, living and leisure community in which businesses can thrive, at the foot of the Malvern hills.
