ARIA DENVER LOCATION & UNIT MIX

Aria Denver Townhomes are located in Northwest Denver near Regis University within a corridor experiencing continued reinvestment and residential growth along North Federal Boulevard. The surrounding area benefits from proximity to higher education, neighborhood-serving retail, and convenient connectivity to downtown Denver and nearby employment centers. Ongoing development along the North Federal corridor continues to strengthen the area's long-term fundamentals and supports sustained renter demand from students, faculty, and young professionals seeking access to this growing submarket.

The community consists of nine modern townhome residences that are individually metered and deeded, designed to balance privacy and efficient density. The unit mix includes three exterior/end units with one shared wall, offering additional natural light and separation, and six interior units with shared side walls. The homes are purpose-built for rental living, providing residents with a contemporary alternative to traditional apartment housing while maintaining the benefits of a townhome layout in a highly accessible location.
