Professional Background

Trent Johnson graduated from Furman University in 2015, where he was a 4-year member of the soccer team, majored in Business Administration, and most importantly met his wife. His family has called Greenville home since graduation and continues to plant their roots in the Upstate.

After 8+ years in B2B sales, Trent found a perfect blend for his interest in Greater Greenville Development and passion for building local relationships and joined the team at The Burgess Company. His family enjoys staying involved at their church, getting outside, and traveling. Trent is a South Carolina licensed real estate broker and is specialized in commercial properties in and around the Greater Greenville area.
