About Modesto

As the county seat of Stanislaus County, Modesto is home to approximately 218,000 residents, ranking as the 19th most populous city in California. The city is known for its rich agricultural industry, especially in almond production, and serves as a thriving economic hub within the San Joaquin Valley.

Modesto has a diverse economy with strong representation in agriculture, manufacturing, healthcare, education, and government sectors. Its strategic location provides businesses with access to key transportation networks, including rail, highways, and airports, making it an attractive site for both local and national businesses.

Major Employers in Modesto

- E. & J. Gallo Winery – The world's largest family-owned winery, headquartered in Modesto, is one of the city's largest employers.
- Foster Farms – A leading poultry producer with processing and distribution facilities in the area.
- Stanislaus County Government – Provides a broad range of public services and administrative jobs.
- Modesto City Schools – One of the area's largest school districts, employing a substantial number of educators and staff.

Healthcare Facilities

Modesto is home to several major medical centers, ensuring top-tier healthcare for residents and businesses.

- Doctors Medical Center of Modesto – A Level II Trauma Center and the region's first certified Primary Stroke Center, offering comprehensive cardiac, emergency, and specialty care services.
- Memorial Medical Center (Sutter Health) – A 423-bed hospital providing cardiac care, cancer treatment, orthopedics, obstetrics, and newborn intensive care. It is also a Primary Stroke Center recognized by The Joint Commission.
- Kaiser Permanente Modesto Medical Center – A regional medical facility offering comprehensive healthcare services, including primary care, specialty care, and outpatient services.

New Stanislaus County Courthouse Project

A major infrastructure project in Modesto is the construction of the new Stanislaus County Courthouse. This state-of-the-art facility, set for completion in October 2025, will consolidate seven existing court locations into a 309,000-square-foot, 27-courtroom complex in downtown Modesto. This project will enhance security, accessibility, and efficiency for legal and government-related businesses.

Conclusion

This office space at 605 Standiford Avenue, Suite M presents an excellent opportunity for businesses looking to establish themselves in a growing and well-connected area of Modesto. With strong economic drivers, major employers, top-tier healthcare facilities, and significant infrastructure investments, Modesto continues to be a prime location for professional and commercial growth.
