

An aerial photograph of a residential complex. In the foreground, a large, two-story building with a red corrugated metal roof and orange-brown vertical siding is prominent. Behind it, a parking lot contains several cars. In the background, more apartment buildings and a larger parking area are visible under a clear sky. A thin brown rectangular border is drawn around the top-left portion of the image, framing the title text.

Investment Highlights

Prime Downtown Cashmere Location

Nestled in the heart of Cashmere's charming and walkable downtown, Cashmere Business Park Apartments benefits from a central location with proximity to local restaurants, shops, and amenities. Independence Way connects directly to Cottage Avenue, providing excellent visibility and convenient access for both residential and commercial tenants. The site is also just minutes from Highway 2, offering quick connections to Wenatchee, Leavenworth, and the broader Wenatchee Valley.

Unique Live-Work Layout with Garage Bays

The property features 20 units, 6 of which are configured with oversized overhead doors and direct-access garage bays that are 16' tall, a less common and highly desirable amenity for tenants who operate small businesses or require secure storage. This layout is ideal for Cashmere's mix of local entrepreneurs, tradespeople, and lifestyle tenants who value flexible space for work, hobbies, or vehicles.

Clear Path to Operational Upside

Current operations leave room for improved property performance through professional management, loss-to-lease recovery, and implementation of market-standard utility billbacks. With the right improvements, the property offers immediate cash flow growth and long-term value creation in a tight rental market.

Strategic Location in a Growing Regional Hub

Located between Wenatchee and Leavenworth, Cashmere is a key residential and commercial node in the Wenatchee Valley. The city benefits from regional tourism, agricultural strength, and outdoor recreation. With Wenatchee's growth as a healthcare and tech employment center and Leavenworth's continued draw as a destination town, Cashmere is positioned as a stable and affordable alternative for residents and businesses alike.

Located at 219-259 Independence Way in the heart of downtown Cashmere, Cashmere Business Park Apartments provides a rare combination of residential and commercial appeal in one of Central Washington's most desirable small-town markets. The asset includes 20 units, 6 of which feature high-clearance garage bays with overhead doors, offering tenants the flexibility to operate home-based businesses, store equipment, or simply enjoy additional private space. This unique configuration is well-suited to Cashmere's diverse tenant base, which includes tradespeople, remote workers, and entrepreneurs drawn to the area's lifestyle and affordability.

Cashmere's downtown continues to evolve with new businesses, restaurants, and community investment, making it an increasingly vibrant place to live and work. The property's location just off Cottage Avenue puts it steps from Main Street attractions, while Highway 2 provides quick access to Wenatchee (15 minutes east) and Leavenworth (20 minutes west). This regional connectivity, combined with small-town charm, is fueling population growth and rising demand for quality rental housing in the area.

As part of the larger Wenatchee Valley economic corridor, Cashmere enjoys the benefits of Wenatchee's expanding healthcare and technology sectors, as well as the year-round tourism economy that supports Leavenworth. The result is a stable, growing rental market with limited new supply—creating an ideal scenario for investors seeking long-term returns and potential for operational improvement in a well-located, high-demand asset.

Submarket Overview

Cashmere

Cashmere, Washington, is a charming small town nestled in the heart of the Wenatchee Valley, surrounded by the stunning Cascade Mountains. With a population of just under 4,000, it offers a tight-knit community vibe while being close to larger cities like Wenatchee and Leavenworth. Known for its outdoor recreational opportunities, Cashmere is a paradise for those who love hiking, river rafting, and enjoying the scenic beauty of the Pacific Northwest. The town's historic downtown, local cideries, and attractions like the Aplets & Cotlets factory give it a unique character that blends rural tranquility with cultural charm.

Cashmere is ideal for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle without sacrificing access to amenities. Its excellent school system and safe, family-friendly environment make it an appealing destination for families. As more people seek affordable housing in desirable, smaller towns within commuting distance to larger cities, multifamily properties provide stable, long-term housing options. Furthermore, Cashmere's relatively low property prices compared to larger nearby areas offer an opportunity for investors to enter the market at a lower cost, with the potential for strong returns as the area continues to grow.
