EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This portfolio presents the opportunity to acquire three Bend, Oregon properties associated with the BWR Eco Bend LLC platform: Greenwood Coin Laundry, Bend 3rd St., and the Vine Lane House property. The offering includes two operating laundromat locations and one associated real estate asset, providing a buyer with a compact, established Bend-based footprint. The 3rd St. and Greenwood stores were purchased in August 2024 and have since been remodeled and partially retooled. Both stores utilize modern payment technology, including card and coin acceptance, and are integrated with operating systems that support machine-level payment flexibility and reporting. This portfolio offers an investor the ability to step into an established business platform with updated locations, in-place infrastructure, and operational systems already in use.

SECTION 4
AREA OVERVIEW

CITY OVERVIEW

Bend, Oregon is one of the strongest growth markets in the state. The U.S. Census Bureau estimates the city had 106,926 residents in 2024, with a median household income of $96,394 and 52.9% of adults holding a bachelor's degree or higher, giving Bend a relatively affluent and educated population base for housing and consumer demand. The City of Bend is planning for continued expansion, with PSU forecasts estimating 160,361 residents by 2050.

Bend's economy is supported by a mix of health care, tourism, outdoor recreation, retail, and growing business activity. The City's 2025 housing and economy work is focused on supporting affordable and middle-income housing, business growth, and wage growth strategies, while EDCO reports that major employers continue to anchor the region, led by St. Charles Health System with 5,188 employees regionwide.

Bend's appeal is driven by its lifestyle and year-round destination value. Visit Bend highlights the city's outdoor recreation, dining, breweries, arts, and events as major draws, which continue to support tourism, in-migration, and local spending. For investors and operators, the main opportunities are straightforward: continued population growth, strong consumer fundamentals, housing demand, and business expansion in a market with lasting regional appeal.
