PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Three-story office building totaling 28,665 square feet on approximately 1.25 acres at 87th and F Street in South Central Omaha, available now for sale or for lease. Originally built in 1974 and fully renovated inside and out in 2018, the building offers a versatile mix of open office, conference rooms, private offices, and workshop or storage areas suited to a wide range of users.

Each of the three floors has its own dedicated entrance. The top and second floors each offer 4,500 to 10,205 square feet of built-out office space, and the 8,255-square-foot lower level adds flexible space with potential for a drive-in and dock-high door. All three floors are vacant and available for immediate occupancy.

For an owner-user, the building offers the option to occupy one floor and lease the others to offset ownership costs. For an investor, the floor-by-floor layout and separate entrances make for a straightforward multi-tenant lease-up. For a tenant, it is move-in-ready office space with parking and quick I-80 access in an established business park.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Located just off I-80, one of the main east to west corridors through Omaha, the site benefits from convenient access to the broader metro area as well as strong visibility within an established industrial and business park environment. This combination of location, size, and layout makes this building an attractive option for companies seeking a centrally located Omaha office headquarters or a solid long term investment.
