boardrooms

Boardroom space, traditionally, can tend to be a bit boring. Throw a table and some chairs in a room and call it a day.

At [inn]space, we know that an environment that stimulates your senses, will not only make the content of your meeting more memorable, but more productive.

Our boardrooms were designed with exactly this in mind. Vastly different in "feel" yet similar in amenities and technology. This means, no matter what your preference, we have the space for you.
