

KI SAWYER VERTIPORT

MEDICAL & NATIONAL SECURITY USE

A STRATEGIC AVIATION ASSET DRIVING ECONOMIC GROWTH

SAVE LIVES

SUPPORT OUR NATION

STRENGTHEN THE ECONOMY

ABOUT THE SITE

77 acres of prime aviation property at Marquette Sawyer Regional Airport, purpose-built for a next-generation vertiport supporting medical response and national security operations.

- ✓ Immediately adjacent to runway and crosswind runway
- ✓ Direct access to highway network
- ✓ Expandable for future growth
- ✓ Secure, self-contained operations

MARQUETTE SAWYER REGIONAL AIRPORT | GWINN, MICHIGAN

GENERAL AVIATION ASSETS

9,070' x 150' Primary Runway
Precision approach, all-weather capability

Crosswind Runway
Enhanced safety and operational flexibility

Airport Control Tower
Operational 24/7 with on-site support

Large Hangars & Apron Space
Accommodates corporate, cargo, and military aircraft

Jet A & Avgas Fuel Facilities
On-site fuel farm with SAF capability

Aircraft Maintenance & Support
MRO partnerships and local services

Ample Parking & Access
For crew, passengers, and support vehicles

Secure Airport Environment
Ideal for sensitive and secure operations

STRATEGIC ADVANTAGES

- ✓ Supports life-saving medical missions
- ✓ Enhances national defense readiness
- ✓ Accelerates emergency response
- ✓ Ideal for unmanned and autonomous aircraft operations
- ✓ Expandable for future vertiport & aviation technologies
- ✓ Strengthens the Upper Peninsula's role in aviation and national security

MARQUETTE
SAWYER
REGIONAL AIRPORT

WHERE AVIATION
MEETS MISSION.
WHERE INVESTMENT TAKES FLIGHT.

CONTACT

Vikki Kulju

(906) 235-4788

vikki.kulju@gmail.com