LOCATION

The subject premises are located approximately 2 miles south of Edinburgh City Centre within the Newington area of the city. The premises are located off Causewayside which in turn runs parallel to Newington Road, Minto Street and Mayfield Gardens, and acts as one of the main arterial routes into the city.

The surrounding area enjoys a wide range of local amenities to include retail, bar/restaurants, offices, light industrial and residential. The main commercial occupiers within close proximity include Tesco, National Library of Scotland, Majestic Wine and Jewson Ltd.

DESCRIPTION

The premises comprise an industrial/business unit of steel frame construction rendered externally under a pitched and corrugated sheet roof. Internally, the premises are arranged to provide open industrial accommodation with a minimum eaves height of 4 meters along with WC facilities.

The property benefits from ample natural daylight thanks to a new insulated roof and roof lights, supplemented by new LED lighting. The walls and floor are also newly painted. In addition the property benefits from a gas supply (capped) and 3 phase power.

Externally, there is ample car parking for deliveries, staff and visitors.
