ABOUT COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

Colorado Springs is the home rule city that is the county seat of, and the most populous city in, El Paso County, Colorado. The city had a population of 478,961 at the 2020 census, a 15.02% increase since 2010. Colorado Springs is the second-most populous city and most extensive city in the state of Colorado, and the 40th-most-populous city in the United States. It is the principal city of the Colorado Springs metropolitan area, which had 755,105 residents in 2020, and the second-most prominent city of the Front Range Urban Corridor. It is located in east-central Colorado on Fountain Creek, 70 miles south of Denver.

At 6,035 feet, the city stands over 1 mile above sea level. It is near the base of Pikes Peak, which rises 14,115 feet above sea level on the eastern edge of the Southern Rocky Mountains. The city is the largest city north of Mexico above 6,000 feet in elevation.

Colorado Springs has the greatest total area of any municipality in Colorado. During the 2020 United States census, the city had a total area of 195.761 square miles.

The city lies in a semi-arid Steppe region, with the Southern Rocky Mountains to the west, the Palmer Divide to the north, high plains further east, and high desert lands to the south when leaving Fountain and approaching Pueblo. Colorado Springs is 69 miles or at best one hour and five minutes south of Denver by car using I-25.
