SUMMARY

Cape Fear Commercial is pleased to present this investment opportunity: a fully-leased, multi-tenant industrial portfolio consisting of three (3) office/warehouse buildings fronting US Highway 421 N—just south of the intersection with Interstate 140—in the fastest-growing industrial corridor in the Greater Wilmington area.

The portfolio includes two (2) freestanding 10,000 SF buildings and one (1) freestanding 5,000 SF building, totaling $\pm 25,000$ square feet. A significant amount of additional land exists on-site, offering potential for expansion or future development. Final acreage is subject to verification based on wetlands, topography, setbacks, and existing stormwater infrastructure.

HWY 421 INDUSTRIAL CORRIDOR OVERVIEW

The Highway 421 corridor has rapidly emerged as the Greater Wilmington region's premier industrial growth area. Located just north of downtown Wilmington and running parallel to the Cape Fear River, this corridor offers unmatched access to the Port of Wilmington, I-140, and major regional routes including I-40, Hwy 17, and Hwy 74/76.

Significant public and private investment—exceeding $500 million in recent years—has transformed this area into a high-demand hub for industrial users seeking accessibility, scalability, and modern infrastructure. The corridor supports a wide range of businesses, from international logistics and food processing to manufacturing and last-mile delivery.

STRATEGIC ADVANTAGES

- + Port Proximity: Just 12 miles to the Port of Wilmington, a deepwater port with global shipping access
- + Highway Access: Immediate access to I-140, Hwy 421, and connectivity to I-40 & Hwy 74/76
- + Airport Access: 11 miles to Wilmington International Airport (ILM)
- + Established Industrial Base: Home to nationally recognized tenants including Amazon, FedEx, Maersk, and Coastal Beverage

MARKET OVERVIEW

Wilmington, North Carolina

Wilmington, North Carolina

Wilmington is a dynamic and thriving coastal community situated between the Cape Fear River and Atlantic Ocean in New Hanover County, North Carolina. It is the largest city in southeastern North Carolina and the eighth largest city in the state, as well as the principal city in the Wilmington Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA).

As the cultural and business center of southeastern North Carolina, Wilmington boasts a charming historic district and lively arts scene. Points of interest include the Cape Fear Museum, the Cameron Arts Museum, Thalian Hall Center for the Performing Arts, Cape Fear Community College's Wilson Center, World War II Memorial Battleship USS North Carolina and the Bellamy Mansion, one of North Carolina's finest examples of historic antebellum architecture. The city plays host to one of the largest domestic television and movie production facilities outside of California and has an inviting business climate, which has attracted major employers such as GE-Hitachi Nuclear Energy, GE Aviation Corning, MegaCorp and Thermo Fisher Scientific. Furthermore, as North Carolina's largest port city, Wilmington serves as the backbone of state international trade.

With a beautiful riverfront, miles of unspoiled beaches and great local seafood restaurants, Wilmington offers the best of a casual, coastal lifestyle. It also boasts the appeal of a small, contemporary city with its global business opportunities and newly revitalized downtown. Top-notch medical facilities, award-winning institutions of higher learning and various entertainment/recreation options also make Wilmington an attractive choice for residents and visitors alike.

THE COASTAL MIGRATION PHENOMENON

The Southeast is leading the nation in population growth. Coastal cities like Wilmington and Myrtle Beach are at the forefront of the surge.

Wilmington has benefited from disproportionately strong in-migration trends that are taking hold in other Southeastern coastal markets. The area's high-quality standard of living, attractive/moderate climate, favorable business environment, diverse economy, first-class healthcare options and abundant lifestyle amenities are major draws for those contemplating relocation.

Population and in-migration trends are important metrics that portend future apartment demand and rent growth trajectories.

Wilmington has benefited from disproportionately strong in-migration trends that are taking hold in other Southeastern coastal markets. The area's high-quality standard of living, attractive/moderate climate, favorable business environment, diverse economy, first-class healthcare options and abundant lifestyle amenities are major draws for those contemplating relocation.

Population and in-migration trends are important metrics that portend future apartment demand and rent growth trajectories.

Continued out-sized population growth along Southeastern coastal counties will spur more apartment demand and lead to out-sized rent growth and asset appreciation.

- + 81.3% of the population lives in coastal states on 57% of the nation's land area.
- + 36.9% of the population can be found in counties adjacent to water, and these counties occupy less than 18% of the nation's land.
- + Overall U.S. population growth between 2004 and 2021 was 48.2 million people.
- + 78.1% of the growth occurred in the coastal states and 26.8% in shore-adjacent counties.

Wilmington realized the largest % population increase in the nation post pandemic in 2020.
