The Neighborhood

CONNECTED AT ITS CORE

Jackson Square seamlessly connects the vibrant waterfront with the bustling Financial District.

RECENT REVITALIZATION

Recent investments in the area have led to improved infrastructure and a more vibrant atmosphere. Apple design guru, Jony Ive is linked to dropping over $130M to purchase a handful of historic buildings in Jackson Square including 535 Pacific, Little Fox Theatre, and more.

TECH INDUSTRY INFLUENCE

The proximity to tech companies has contributed to a customer base with disposable income and a taste for high-quality products.

INTIMATE SETTING

Unlike larger shopping districts, Jackson Square offers a more relaxed and personalized shopping environment.

HISTORIC CHARM

The area's preserved 19th-century architecture creates a distinctive ambiance that appeals to customers seeking a unique shopping experience.

OFFICE SPACE

The growing number of tech and professional services firms in the area provides a steady customer base for retail businesses.

FINE DINING & SYNERGY

The neighborhood's culinary offerings enhance the overall shopping experience, attracting visitors and encouraging extended stays. In addition, there is a vibrant mix of restaurants, art galleries, high end retail, and boutique hotels.

NEW RETAIL CONCEPTS

A wave of innovative retailers has brought fresh energy and diversity to the neighborhood including new leases signed by Polo Ralph Lauren and Paul Smith.
