LOCATION

Pains Hill Chapel occupies a location on the edge of Limpsfield Chart, 1.25km to the south of Limpsfield village and 2Km to the Southeast of Oxted town centre. Oxted is the nearest town with a population of around 11,489 (2021 Census).

The Chapel is situated on the Southern side of the Chapel Road close to the junction with Pains Hill / Brick Kiln Lane.

Oxted and Hurst Green mainline train stations provide regular services to East Croydon, London Victoria and London Bridge as well at stations to Uckfield. The area is well served by road with the A25 just 700m to the north and Junction 6 of the M25 7.5KM to the West

DESCRIPTION

A detached, two-story building constructed in the early 1800's, with a single storey side and rear extension. A religious building comprising a front entrance / porch, Chapel, meeting room, kitchen, rear lobby and toilets on the ground floor and there is also a room on the first floor which overlooks the main Chapel area. The property has gas central heating and is double glazed. The Chapel sits on a broadly rectangular site with boundaries clearly defined by timber fencing. There is a timer gate to the front left-hand side of the Chapel providing access to a path around the perimeter of the building.

A floor plan is available upon request.

PLANNING

The Current authorised use falls within Class F1 (Learning & Non-Residential Institutions) of the Town & Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 2020. The property may be suitable for other community type uses subject to planning. Enquiries in this regard should be made to Tandridge District Council (www.tandridge.gov.uk).

Interested parties should note that the sale of the property will be subject to restrictions on its future development, and the prospective buyer agrees to enter into suitable provisions to secure the payment of overage in respect of any future residential development or change of use of the property to residential.
