AGENT BIOS

MATT FOSTER

Originally the founder of Carolina Moves, Matt Foster has transitioned to the Real Estate sales division, bringing vast knowledge in residential and commercial management, where he's helped clients drive efficiency, growth, and profitability with their rental investments. His functional experience includes investing in single family, multi family, and commercial real estate and developing new revenue streams. He prides himself in building upon relationships and helping create prosperity for those he serves.

JOSH HAKALA

With Josh . . . It's "All About YOU!" He is a full service, "all about YOU" Realtor who is eager to assist you with finding or selling your home. Before pursuing a career in real estate, his professional career began in the Private Country Club Industry. Born and raised in Southern Florida, Josh was a tennis professional and instructor. Through tennis, he learned some very useful skills: how to work successfully in a fast paced environment, how to ensure client satisfaction while mastering the skills of attention to detail, how to listen, the importance of team work and being a team player and how to do it all while creating a fun environment . . . skills that now serve him well in his practice of Real Estate.

MELANIE HINCAPIE

A strong attention to detail, truly listening to her client's needs, and a candid approach towards solutions are only a few of the reasons working with Melanie will be enjoyable as well as beneficial! As a partner in The Founders Group of Carolina Moves, she is able to assist in both residential and commercial real estate needs and brings vast resources, such as being trilingual, speaking French, Spanish, and English, and having a passion for design around the world, giving her vision for what a property that may need TLC can become. Her goal is to establish meaningful and lasting relationships with her clients, so when you choose Melanie, you are not only getting an agent, but a friend for life!

BARBARA EMERSON

Barbara is a native of Leon Guanajuato, Mexico. but has lived in Greenville SC for 26 years. She has witnessed the growth and development of this beautiful City; this has brought her to the interest and love of Real Estate. Her knowledge of the continuing development and changes in Greenville and it's surrounding areas is a great asset for her clients. She first became a Realtor in 2002 and after years of a successful career, Barbara took some time to be a wife and raise her children.
