SECTION 01

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Spring Hill Forty is a 40.00 +/- acre wooded tract in the Spring Hill area of Flathead County, west of Kalispell. It is classified by the Montana Department of Revenue as forest land (Class Code 1901) and assessed on timber-growing productivity within Forest Valuation, Timber Zone 1.

Set among the recreational parks, lakes and trails of the Kila and Kalispell area, the tract suits buyers seeking a working-forest or recreational landholding within easy reach of Kalispell, Whitefish and the broader Flathead Valley. It can stand on its own or be combined with the adjacent 320.00 +/- acre parcel to form a contiguous 360.00 +/- acre Spring Hill block under single ownership.

Portfolio materials describe the broader ownership as mostly rural and undeveloped, with a long stewardship history, sustainable-forestry positioning, and a mix of land types supporting forestry, conservation, development, or recreation. Buyer to independently verify all parcel-specific details.

- Gateway to Glacier National Park & Flathead Lake
- Upland birds & webless migratory birds (dove, snipe): over-the-counter, no draw

THE SETTING

Few places in the American West pair working land with lifestyle the way the Flathead Valley does. The tract sits within a short drive of Whitefish (a nationally known mountain-resort town), the recreation hub of Flathead Lake, and the west entrance to Glacier National Park, while Kalispell anchors the valley with full services and commercial air travel.

It is a region where a buyer can hold and steward Montana land without giving up access to skiing, water, and a thriving four-season community.
