Downtown Denver: A City Reinvesting in Its Future

Downtown Denver is in the midst of a historic reinvestment cycle. With $4 billion in development completed or under construction since 2019, a unanimously adopted 20-year Downtown Area Plan, and $166 million in DDDA-funded projects across 13 initiatives, the city’s urban core is evolving into a vibrant, complete neighborhood— attracting residents, businesses, and visitors at an accelerating pace.

5 KEY FACTS ABOUT DOWNTOWN’S MOMENTUM

- $4B+ Invested – 53 projects completed since 2019 with 11 more under construction, delivering 8,653 residential units, 1,949 hotel rooms, and $895M in active investment.
- Landmark Projects Ahead – Wynkoop Crossing pedestrian bridge to Ball Arena (groundbreaking 2026), River Mile 62-acre master plan, and Civic Center Next 100 park renovation are reshaping downtown’s edges.
- Office-to-Residential Shift – Seven adaptive reuse projects delivering ~1,800 new residential units while removing 1.8M SF of office inventory—rebalancing supply and demand.
- 90% Recovery & Growing – 73 million visits in 2025. December reached 99% of pre-pandemic levels. 72 new businesses opened, including elevated tenants at Larimer Square.
- 35K Residents & Climbing – Downtown population grew 2.3x since 2010, with 3.5% projected annual growth—outpacing the city, state, and nation.

THE BIGGER PICTURE FOR DOWNTOWN

From Union Station to Civic Center, 16th Street is the connector—tying together a network of catalytic projects that are redefining Denver’s urban core. With new residential towers replacing obsolete office buildings, world-class parks under construction, and 90+ days of public activations each year, downtown is writing its next chapter. For businesses and investors, the momentum is unmistakable.

16th Street Redevelopment: Denver's Main Corridor Reimagined

16th Street is being transformed—both in name and function—through a $200 million redevelopment that will reinvigorate downtown Denver's most iconic and active pedestrian corridor. Spanning 1.2 miles from Union Station to Civic Center Station, this project is about more than infrastructure—it's about unlocking new opportunities for businesses, tenants, and communities in the heart of the city.

Already one of Denver's busiest destinations with over 100,000 daily visitors, 16th Street is evolving into a more connected, flexible, and future-ready urban space. With upgraded paving, infrastructure, and pedestrian flow—plus new space for activations, outdoor retail, and dining—this corridor is being purposefully designed to support growth.

5 KEY FACTS ABOUT THE 16TH STREET REDEVELOPMENT

- $200M Investment
Major funding to upgrade infrastructure, improve safety, and boost economic activity downtown.
- Better Access & Flow
Redesigned for easier movement—pedestrians, transit, and bikes all benefit.
- Boost for Business
More foot traffic and new outdoor spaces = more opportunity for retail, dining, and activations.
- Built to Last
Upgraded utilities and sustainable design ensure long-term performance.
- Modern Look, Historic Soul
A fresh identity that honors the street's iconic character while embracing the future.

THE HEART OF DOWNTOWN, READY FOR WHAT'S NEXT

Union Station: A Revitalized Landmark Driving Downtown Denver's Growth

Union Station has been transformed from a historic train depot into a vibrant mixed-use hub in the heart of Downtown Denver. It now combines transit, hospitality, dining, and retail, drawing people and businesses alike. This redevelopment boosts foot traffic, encourages investment, and sets the stage for continued growth across downtown.

5 KEY FACTS ABOUT THE REDEVELOPMENT

- Transit Hub - Offers RTD light rail, Airport A-Line, and Amtrak service including Winter Park Express.
- Luxury Stay - The Crawford Hotel was remodeled into a 5-star experience with updated rooms and the revived Cooper Lounge.
- Dining Destination - Home to local favorites like Mercantile Dining & Provision and Stoic & Genuine.
- Activated Public Space - The Great Hall serves as Denver's "living room," welcoming all-day activity.
- Growth Catalyst - Spurred further development in Downtown Denver, raising demand for office, retail, and residential space.

UNION STATION'S IMPACT ON DOWNTOWN DENVER

Union Station drives energy and commerce in the city's core. Its blend of transit, lifestyle, and business makes it a key draw for companies and tenants. This successful revitalization sets a new standard for urban redevelopment —where connection, culture, and opportunity meet.
