Attractive period business unit forming part of a small multi-let estate close to Lee Station.

Arranged over two floors the property comprises an open plan storage or workshop area across the ground floor accessed via a roller shutter; finished with a painted concrete floor and air conditioning. The first floor is also open plan and benefits from double glazed windows, painted exposed brick walls, new laminate flooring and air conditioning. Further benefits include a tea point, WC and allocated parking for two vehicles. The property extends to approx. 928sqft (86.2sqm) GIA in all.

With flexible E-class use, the property will suit a wide variety of local and regional businesses.

Refurbishment works will be completed by October 2026 following which a new lease is available on flexible terms.

Southbrook Mews is conveniently located just off the A2212 Burnt Ash Road close to Lee Station. The immediate vicinity offers a choice of independent cafes, restaurants and shops along with a Fullers pub and Co-Op convenience store.

Lee Station is within a few hundred yards and provides Southeastern services to London Bridge in as little as 16 minutes. The SL4 bus links Grove Park to Canary Wharf via Lee & Blackheath, whilst the 261 & 273 routes also stop nearby providing services to Bromley, Lewisham, Chislehurst & Petts Wood.

Lewisham's busy town centre is less than 1.5 miles to the North West, whilst Blackheath is approx. 1 mile to the North.

Energy Performance

The CEPC for is available via the following link. The property sits in band E, albeit the energy assessment was undertaken prior to the recent refurbishment works.
