CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Your receipt of this Memorandum constitutes your acknowledgement that (i) it is a confidential Memorandum solely for your limited use and benefit in determining whether you desire to express further interest in the acquisition of the Property, (ii) you will hold it in the strictest confidence, (iii) you will not disclose it or its contents to any third party without the prior written authorization of the owner of the Property ("Owner") or Inc., and (iv) you will not use any part of this Memorandum in any manner detrimental to the Owner or Inc.

The information contained in this Marketing Brochure has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable. However, we make no guarantee, warranty or representation whatsoever about the accuracy or completeness of any information provided.

As the Buyer of an investment property, it is the Buyer's responsibility to independently confirm the accuracy and completeness of all material information before completing any purchase. This Marketing Brochure is not a substitute for your thorough due diligence investigation of this investment opportunity. We deny any obligation to conduct a due diligence examination of this Property for Buyer. Any projections, opinions, assumptions or estimates used in this Marketing Brochure are for example only and do not represent the current or future performance of this property. The value of an investment property to you depends on factors that should be evaluated by you and your tax, financial and legal advisors. Buyer and Buyer's tax, financial, legal, and construction advisors should conduct a careful, independent investigation of any investment property to determine to your satisfaction with the suitability of the property for your needs.

Like all real estate investments, this investment carries significant risks. Buyer and Buyer's legal and financial advisors must request and carefully review all legal and financial documents related to the property and tenant. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. Similarly, the lease rate for some properties, including newly-constructed facilities or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on a tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance, or comparable rents for the area. Returns are not guaranteed; the tenant and any guarantors may fail to pay the lease rent or property taxes, or may fail to comply with other material terms of the lease; cash flow may be interrupted in part or in whole due to market, economic, environmental or other conditions. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, Buyer is responsible for conducting his/her own investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property, and Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property.

ALL PROPERTY SHOWINGS ARE BY APPOINTMENT ONLY. DO NOT WALK ON PROPERTY, TALK OR CONTACT ANY TENANTS OR MANAGEMENT WITHOUT WRITTEN PERMISSION OF SELLER OR SELLER'S AGENTS.

Area Description

Los Angeles, California, is a vibrant metropolis situated in Southern California along the Pacific coast. Known for its diverse population, entertainment industry, and stunning landscapes, it offers a unique blend of cultures. As the most populous city in California and the second largest in the U.S., LA is famous for Hollywood, beautiful beaches, and an innovative culinary scene, making it a sought-after destination for millions of visitors each year.

Recreational Delights

Los Angeles boasts a wide array of recreational opportunities, ensuring outdoor enthusiasts can always find something to enjoy. The city's charming beaches, including Santa Monica and Venice Beach, offer the perfect backdrop for sunbathing, surfing, and beach volleyball. Griffith Park, one of the largest urban parks in North America, features hiking trails, picnic spots, and iconic attractions like the Griffith Observatory. For a taste of nature close to city life, the Angeles National Forest provides trails and scenic vistas just a short drive away. Outdoor activities are plentiful, including mountain biking in the San Gabriel Mountains and kayaking in the LA Harbor. Additionally, the city's abundant parks, like Echo Park and Pershing Square, are perfect for a leisurely stroll or community events.

Culinary Scene

Los Angeles is a culinary powerhouse, known for its rich tapestry of global cuisines influenced by its diverse population. Mexican food, particularly tacos and burritos, reigns supreme, with taco trucks sprinkled throughout the city. The culinary landscape includes vibrant neighborhoods like Koreatown, where diners can enjoy authentic Korean BBQ, and Little Tokyo, home to exquisite sushi and ramen shops. Other notable food districts include the artsy Melrose Avenue and the historic Olvera Street, each serving up flavors from around the world. In the era of plant-based eating, LA has emerged as a leader in vegan and vegetarian dining, boasting an impressive number of restaurants dedicated to meat-free options. The Michelin Guide recognizes several establishments, including high-end eateries and food trucks, underlining the city's innovative and diverse culinary scene.
