Located just off Highway 6 with immediate access to I-380, 1570 Mall Drive offers modern, flexible office space in one of Iowa City’s established commercial corridors. This multi-tenant office property has 2,000 SF available for lease, making it well suited for professional office users, medical and wellness operators, administrative groups, consulting firms, or service-oriented businesses seeking efficient space in a convenient regional location.

The property benefits from strong accessibility and visibility along a corridor experiencing steady daily traffic, helping support both employee convenience and customer access. Located minutes from central Iowa City, Coralville, and the broader Johnson County market, tenants can quickly connect to major transportation routes while remaining close to surrounding retail, dining, healthcare, and employment centers.

Designed with functionality in mind, the building features 11-14 foot ceiling heights, central heating and cooling, 220-volt electrical service, off-street parking, onsite signage opportunities, and municipal water and sewer service. The office environment supports a range of layouts and business models while offering modern construction relative to much of the surrounding inventory.
