WHY DUBLIN?

THE CITY OF DUBLIN

Dublin is a city of around 50,000 residents located just northwest of Columbus, Ohio. It offers residents and corporate citizens responsive services, attractive housing, superior public education, direct regional highway access, abundant park space, thoughtful and strategic planning, innovative ideas and technology and a dynamic community life. Dublin is ranked the number one small city in Ohio and is consistently ranked one of the safest cities in the nation. It is home to more than 20 corporate headquarters, an entrepreneurial center, thousands of thriving businesses from start-ups to international corporations, world-class events and the urban, walkable Bridge Street District.

Dublin has long been recognized as a premier community, not only locally but also internationally. Home to some of Ohio's largest corporations, including Cardinal Health, Quantum Health and United Healthcare, Dublin also is the headquarters of the Wendy's Company, Nestle and OCLC.

Dublin's diverse and sound economic base provides the foundation for the present and future stability of the City. The City's continued economic vitality is the result of quality development, strategic planning and aggressive efforts to attract and retain high-quality commercial development.

All three high schools consistently rank among the top high schools in the country. With an average ACT score of 25.6, Dublin City Schools is the #1 ranked district in Central Ohio, #3 in Ohio and #57 in the nation, according to school rating website niche.com. With 25 institutes of higher learning in Central Ohio, including Ohio University at Dublin, Columbus State's Dublin Regional Learning Center and The Ohio State University in nearby Columbus, the region offers a pipeline to 115,000 college students and 20,000 annual graduates.

Dublin's fiscally sound stewardship has earned the City the highest available bond ratings – AAA from Moody's Investors Service and AAA from Fitch Ratings – a distinction carried by approximately three percent of rated cities nationwide.
