Eagle is an upscale community with beautiful, well designed neighborhoods, mid to high end homes, quality schools and attractive, high-end retail and commercial developments. The area attracts outdoor enthusiasts, families, and retirees who heavily support community-centered businesses and local events. Eagle's average home price $300K to $1.5M.

Opening a business in Eagle, Idaho offers access to a rapidly growing, affluent local population, a pro-business state environment with low startup costs, and strong community support for local enterprises within the booming Treasure Valley region. Eagle and the greater Boise metro area continue to see a massive influx of new residents, creating an increasing demand for local goods, professional services, and retail.

Idaho ranks high nationally for small business growth and economic momentum, featuring low filing fees and no annual LLC fees at the state level.

Eagle Population Trends

The mission of the Eagle Economic Development Department is to help foster an environment that supports and encourages the maintenance, growth and enhancement of a high quality life, increases economic opportunities and provides a place for businesses to grow and be successful. This is accomplished through the recruitment of new business, the retention and expansion of existing businesses, downtown revitalization, tourism, workforce development, talent attraction, entrepreneurial and small business development, and promoting the city as an innovative, knowledge-based community with an exorbitant quality of life.

WHERE IS EAGLE?

Eagle is located in the Southwestern region of Idaho and within the Boise Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA).

Situated in the county of Ada, Eagle lies ten (10) miles west of the capital city of Boise and is surrounded on three sides by the city of Garden City, Meridian and Star, and on the northerly boundary by the foothills.

The Boise River runs directly through the City of Eagle in an east-west direction, connecting Eagle to Boise with a scenic pedestrian greenbelt pathway.

Eagle has direct connection to Interstate-84 via Eagle Road/State Highway 55. The Boise airport is a short 23-minute drive. Aerial connectivity from the Boise Airport is convenient for companies needing direct nonstop flights. The Boise Airport is served by seven major airlines with nonstop flights to 21 cities and counting.

Getting around the Treasure Valley is easy with one major interstate (I-84) serving the entire metro area, and with federal highways 20, 26 and 30, and state highways 21, 44 and 55 providing access to communities across the valley.
