RECENT NEWS

The Highway 434 Medical Campus continues to benefit from significant investment in both healthcare infrastructure and the surrounding transportation network, reinforcing its position as one of the Northshore's premier medical corridors.

Most notably, Ochsner Health recently announced an affiliation with Allegiance Health System to expand access to specialty care, strengthen care coordination, and introduce additional clinical innovation across rural Louisiana. This strategic collaboration further solidifies Ochsner's role as Louisiana's leading healthcare provider and expands its regional reach.

Additionally, Oceans Healthcare announced plans to develop a new 66-bed behavioral health hospital within the Ochsner Northshore Medical Complex in Lacombe. Scheduled to open in 2027, the facility will provide both inpatient and outpatient behavioral health services for adults throughout St. Tammany Parish and the Florida Parishes, addressing one of the region's most significant healthcare needs while expanding the campus's service offerings.

Growth extends well beyond the medical campus itself. St. Tammany Parish is advancing long-planned improvements to Highway 434, the primary transportation corridor serving the medical complex. The roadway expansion is intended to accommodate increasing traffic volumes generated by continued residential and commercial development throughout western and central St. Tammany Parish. The infrastructure investment underscores the area's rapid growth and is expected to improve accessibility, connectivity, and long-term development opportunities surrounding the Ochsner Northshore campus.

Together, these healthcare and infrastructure investments highlight the continued transformation of the Highway 434 corridor into a major employment, medical, and economic center for the Northshore region.

What Customers Need to Know When Working With Real Estate Brokers or Licensees

This document describes the various types of agency relationships that can exist in real estate transactions.

AGENCY means a relationship in which a real estate broker or licensee represents a client by the client's consent, whether expressed or implied, in an immovable property transaction. An agency relationship is formed when a real estate licensee works for you in your best interest and represents you. Agency relationships can be formed with buyers/sellers and lessors/lessees.

DESIGNATED AGENCY means the agency relationship that shall be presumed to exist when a licensee engaged in any real estate transaction, except as otherwise provided in LA R.S. 9:3891, is working with a client, unless there is a written agreement providing for a different relationship.

- The law presumes that the real estate licensee you work with is your designated agent, unless you have a written agreement otherwise.
- No other licensees in the office work for you, unless disclosed and approved by you.
- You should confine your discussions of buying/selling to your designated agent or agents only.

DUAL AGENCY means an agency relationship in which a licensee is working with both buyer and seller or both landlord and tenant in the same transaction. Such a relationship shall not constitute dual agency if the licensee is the seller of property that he/she owns or if the property is owned by a real estate business of which the licensee is the sole proprietor and agent. A dual agency relationship shall not be construed to exist in a circumstance in which the licensee is working with both landlord and tenant as to a lease that does not exceed a term of three years and the licensee is the landlord. Dual agency is allowed only when informed consent is presumed to have been given by any client who signed the dual agency disclosure form prescribed by the Louisiana Real Estate Commission. Specific duties owed to both buyer/seller and lessor/lessee are:

- To treat all clients honestly.
- To provide factual information about the property.
- To disclose all latent material defects in the property that are known to them.
- To help the buyer compare financing options.
- To provide information about comparable properties that have sold, so that both clients may make educated buying/selling decisions.
- To disclose financial qualifications to the buyer/lessee to the seller/lessor.
- To explain real estate terms.
- To help buyers/lessees arrange for property inspections
- To explain closing costs and procedures.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION means information obtained by a licensee from a client during the term of a brokerage agreement that was made confidential by the written request or written instruction of the client or is information the disclosure of which could materially harm the position of the client, unless at any time any of the following occur:

- The client permits the disclosure by word or conduct.
- The disclosure is required by law or would reveal serious defect.
- The information became public from a source other than the licensee.

By signing below you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and that you are authorized to sign this form in the capacity in which you have signed.
