VALENCIA

The vibrant, future master-planned community of Valencia in Manvel, TX—located just minutes from Houston and Pearland—is poised for significant growth and development. The expansion includes the addition of 1,500 new homes to the north, situated on both sides of Pollard Boulevard. As part of the City's Thoroughfare Master Plan, Pollard will serve as a major north-south four-lane corridor, ultimately providing access to thousands of homes and facilitating regional connectivity. Traffic along Highway 6 already exceeds 3,000 vehicles per hour during peak morning and afternoon periods and is expected to grow rapidly alongside the city's expansion. According to an earlier LJA traffic study, the nearby BlueWater Lakes development is projected to generate 3,500 daily trips from Beazer residential alone, with an additional 8,000 daily trips anticipated from three adjacent commercial tracts—adding to the already substantial Highway 6 traffic. With homes under construction now north of BlueWater, the Valencia community is expected to contribute more than 10,000 additional daily trips to Pollard Boulevard, underscoring its impact as a key growth area in Manvel's future.

Manvel is a rapidly expanding community located in Brazoria County, approximately 20 miles south of Houston within the greater Houston metropolitan area.

Recent data from the United States Census Bureau highlights the city as one of the fastest-growing communities in the region, with significant population gains driven by sustained residential development. Manvel's population has surged in recent years, growing from a small semi-rural town into a thriving suburban market, with estimates increasing from roughly 9,000 residents in 2020 to over 20,000 by 2024.

Fueled by master-planned communities, expanding infrastructure, and convenient access to major employment hubs in Houston and the Texas Medical Center, Manvel continues to emerge as one of the area's most dynamic and high-growth residential markets.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
