Queen Mary University London, Charterhouse Campus, commenced their original 10 year Lease December 2018. The University opted not to exercise their break option after 5 years and the current lease is therefore due expire in December 2028. There have been no negotiations to extend the current lease.

The Charterhouse Square campus is home to three of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry's research Institutes:
Barts Cancer Institute (formerly Institute of Cancer), William Harvey Research Institute and Wolfson Institute of Population Health
