STATE POLICE

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

New Reduced Price! 8000-8002 Bretz Drive consists of two fully leased, mission-critical single-tenant facilities situated on a combined 6.17-acre parcel and purpose-built for long-term governmental use. Constructed as build-to-suit improvements for the Pennsylvania State Police (Moody's: Aa2), the properties serve as the Troop H Headquarters and a Municipal Police Training Facility, with both buildings recently executing lease extensions that reinforce long-term tenancy stability. Strategically positioned just off the intersection of Allentown Boulevard (US-22) and Hershey Road (PA-39), the site provides efficient regional connectivity throughout Troop H's coverage area - Perry, Cumberland, Dauphin, Adams, and Franklin Counties - and benefits from proximity to the Pennsylvania State Police Academy in Hershey. As a state agency of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a 2025-2026 annual budget exceeding $1.75 billion, ranking as the state's third-largest funded department, the tenancy offers strong, credit-backed income.

LOCATION OVERVIEW

DAUPHIN COUNTY is located in south-central Pennsylvania, and is home to the state capital in Harrisburg. It is a region filled with opportunity, diversity, and an exceptional quality of life. It is a natural location for the state capital and is a critical hub for east coast transportation systems as a convergence point in the Boston-to-Richmond northeast corridor. Positioned to provide cost effective access to eastern US markets while maintaining a superior living environments, Dauphin County is known as a choice location of business and industry.

Harrisburg, the Capital City, is the urban nucleus of Dauphin County. The city has been the county seat since 1785 and Pennsylvania's capital since 1812. Beautifully situated on the mile-wide Susquehanna River and back-dropped by the Blue Ridge Mountains, Harrisburg has merged big-city influence and sophistication with small-town friendliness and charm.

The upper tier of Dauphin County provides a quiet county setting with quaint towns lying in pristine mountain valleys. Several national companies have located here due to availability of land, an established workforce of people committed to quality work, and a proximity to interstate highways, including several new road projects that are planned or underway. Dauphin County serves as a major distribution hub for many companies servicing the east coast's top metropolitan markets. Dauphin County is the home of Tyco Electronics/AMP, Hershey Chocolate USA and Hershey Amusement Park.

In contrast, the county's southern portion is much more urbanized in and around Harrisburg and Hershey. This region boasts a number of economic development resources including Harrisburg International Airport, the New Baldwin Corridor Enterprise Zone which spans seven municipalities, over 20 major industrial parks and office districts, a well developed highway system, as well as main line Amtrak passenger service and an intermodal terminus for double stack rail freight.
