THE SITE

One-of-a-kind industrial land opportunity within the Portland Metro region for users and developers. 76.34 acres of flat industrial land (approx. 49 usable acres), heavily paved and graded. Once home to the oldest steel foundry west of the Mississippi River, Columbia Steel, for over 120 years, the site features heavy infrastructure, including an on-site electrical substation, rail service on a Union Pacific (UP) mainline, up to 12” natural gas service lines, and proximity to I-5, Portland, and Vancouver, WA. Electronic fencing was recently installed around the property’s perimeter.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

- Large scale
- Rail served
- Heavy power (on-site substation)
- Heavy natural gas
- Strong income
- Perimeter fence system
