

Colorama

Colorama offers three newly refurbished and self contained units each split across ground and lower ground floors. Each unit is accessible via either its own front door, or an impressive double-height communal reception area. The units each benefit from air-conditioning, a fitted kitchenette, heating, and floor to ceiling height windows to allow for excellent natural light. Building facilities include showers, bike racks and 24 hour access into the property.

Colorama is perfectly located between several major transport links including Borough, Southwark, and Waterloo Stations all within minutes of the property. Furthermore, there are plenty of nearby cafe's, restaurants and entertainment options along Borough High Street and The Cut making a great location for lunch and after work entertainment. Nearby landmarks include the London Eye, Tate Modern and the Shard.
